Revised Parking and Building Access Instructions

Please use the steps listed below to park and enter the Forum conference site. They have been revised from those previously published due to the size of anticipated attendance. Be sure to allow sufficient time to arrive at the site and complete registration. The Opening Session will start promptly at 8:30 AM on Thursday.

To get to the Forum site, the La Quinta Inn and the Fairfield Inn:

1. Go to the northwest side of Atlanta, where I-75 connects with I-285 either via I-75 or I-285. Take I-285 traveling west. Take the first exit, which is the Paces Ferry Road/Vinings exit. When you get off of the highway, go west so that you are outside the I-285 loop.

If you are driving to the Forum site:

2. Turn right into the Home Depot Store Support Center driveway, which is the first one after the highway overpass. Continue straight ahead to the entrance of the parking deck. At the parking deck gate, push the attention button and tell Security that you are registered for the Informix Conference. They will lift the gate for you.

3. Park in the center parking deck in a spot not numbered or marked, and enter the "C" building through the middle entrance. Walk in to the right side away from the employee automated entrances. The guard at the Security station will verify that you are on the registration list. Once you have cleared Security, proceed straight through the building to the front lobby. Stop at the Forum 2005 tables in the lobby to complete registration.

If you are walking to the Forum site:

2. After you enter the Support Center driveway, bear right and stop at the security gate. Tell the guard that you are registered for the Informix conference.

3. Proceed through the gate, continue along the front of the complex and enter the middle building. Tell the receptionist that you are registered for the Informix conference. You will be cleared through the glass partition. Stop at the Forum 2005 tables in the lobby to complete registration.

To complete registration:

4. Complete registration by picking up your Forum ID Badge and information packet.

You will need your Forum Badge to gain access to all Forum activities, including the Conference Party.

Wednesday Evening Gathering

There is no official gathering on Wednesday evening. However, one suggested place is Padriac's, 2460 Cumberland Parkway, Atlanta, GA 30339, 770-433-2398, www.padriacs.com. There are many other establishments in the Vinings and Cumberland areas.
